FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Washington High School Football Coach

South Bend Schools is pleased to announce the appointment of Todd Stammich as the new head football coach at Washington High School for the 2019-2020 school year, pending February 4th, Board of Trustees approval. Coach Stammich brings over 23 years of coaching experience at the high/middle school level. Todd is a graduate of Riley High School, where he played and started his coaching career as the Freshmen Coach, Varsity Assistant and Varsity Defensive Coordinator.

Coach Todd Stammich graduated from IUSB with a bachelor's degree in Secondary Education and Masters degree in Counseling and Human Services. Along with working at Jefferson Middle School as the Guidance Director for the last 12 years, Stammich has been the Broadcast Analyst for high school football games on Redeemer Radio with Bob Berger and Angelo DiCarlo for the past three years.

"We're very excited that Todd Stammich, his wife (Erin) and two daughters (Alaina and Nadia) are joining the Panther family," said Garland Hudson, Athletic Director at Washington High School. "Coach Stammich is going to be a great asset to our school, culture and the South Bend community. He has a proven track record of helping young men become outstanding individuals on and off the field. His understanding that life is bigger than football is what impresses me the most!"
